Sarah,

As Diane indicated, we should be getting an unsigned draft to review for fatal flaws. We also hope to start developing responses to the comments. Once the memo is final and signed, we'll need to release it, and I would like to have some concept of how we will be replying to the comments before it goes out to the public.

Hi Sarah,

The CSTAG agreed to a turnaround of 1 month which would be the end of this week. I am not sure if that is going to happen, so I am hopeful for early next week. However, I believe it will be a draft, unsigned version that we are going to take a few days to go over for any major concerns before it gets signed and we send it out.

Agreed about 11 principles memo.

Thanks

Bill Hyatt called to ask me when we expected to hear from CSTAG. Any sense of that? I think we were hoping to get something by the end of March, so?

He also asked about the 11 principles memo. When I call him back, I will let him know that we are not planning to release it at this time.
